Mr. Higgins was a son of the late Jacob Higgins and some 20 years ago married Miss Judith King, of the East End. Three children were born to bless their union—two girls and one son. Mr. Higgins was a splendid citizen and moved from this county to Somerset some 15 or more years ago. The burial occurred at Somerset Sunday afternoon. A loving wife and three children are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and indulgent father.

WE are glad to state that the excellent work of building a chapel at Rowland is going on notwithstanding the opposition of some of our people to it.

Mrs. L. M. Omer first organized a splendid Sunday school there and seeing the need of a little church, she began the big task of raising funds to build one. That she has succeeded is shown in the fact that the building is under construction. The Rowland people are delighted at the thought of having a church and many of the carpenters and other workmen there have pledged work on it. It will be a fitting monument to the good woman who has given so much of her time and work to missionary causes and all right-thinking people will not only feel grateful to her for her excellent work but will help her by word or deed complete the little church. It is a most laudable cause and if there are those who wish to give of their means toward it, Mrs. Omer will be glad to receive it and show them the good their money will do.

PRESIDENT SAMUEL T. HARRIS is to be congratulated upon the excellent management of the fair. He worked in season and out to make the fair a success and we are glad to state that his efforts were not in vain. The association could not have chosen a better man to fill the president's chair than he. The vice presidents and directors did all within their power to make the fair a success and they deserve the plaudit from all: "Well done thou good and faithful servants."

SWELL FAIR HOP.—The Fair hop given at Walton's Opera House last Thursday evening by the Stanford Dance Club was certainly a swell one and was largely attended. The music was furnished by Storms' Orchestra and they never played better. The belles were all handsomely gowned and presented an appearance of beauty seldom equalled in Stanford. There were visitors here from all the surrounding towns and from quite a distance. When the dance ended in the wee sma' hours on Friday morning to the sweet strains of "Home, Sweet Home" by the excellent orchestra, the large crowd was reluctant to leave, but did so with the fond hope that they would all meet here again next year at the same place under the same circumstances. Those from a distance were: Misses Elizabeth Wall Allen, Millersburg; Susie Wilkerson, Temple, Texas; Mabel King, Shelbyville; M. Kay Sallee, Harrodsburg; Elizabeth Jefferson, Louisville; Margaret and Joan Mount, Lancaster; Josephine Dunn, Danville; Edna Camnitz, Hustonville; Frances Sparks, Alza Thompson, Mt. Vernon; Olivia Baldwin, Richmond; Pearl Burnside, Columbus, Ga.; Virginia Shumate, Newburn, Tenn.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.—On last Wednesday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Warren on East Main Street, Misses Emma Warren and Stella McClary entertained in honor of Miss Katherine Marguerite Warren, of Somerset. In the receiving line stood Misses Emma Warren, Stella McClary and Katherine Warren and the guests were most cordially received. At the frappe bowl Misses Maggie Stagg and Anna Warren presided with much grace and served the 125 or more guests beautifully with the delicious drink. Those who assisted the hostesses in entertaining were: Misses Blanche Van Deever, Sara Baughman, Addie McClary, Lucile and Mattie Menefee, Bessie Yantis, Peachie Baughman, Mattie McClary, Virginia Bourne, and to say that every guest present was delightfully entertained but feebly expresses it. The house was artistically decorated in pink and white and the spacious lawn was filled to overflowing with Japanese lanterns, chairs, settees, swings and tete-a-tete seats, tastily arranged so as to make the heart grow fonder and sweeter to those who had the pleasure of occupying them. At an appropriate hour the guests by coteries were served on the large veranda until the 125 or more had partaken of ices and cakes elegantly served by those who assisted in entertaining. When the time arrived for leaving, the guests repaired to the parlor where the hostesses were showered with congratulations and encomiums.

THE Lyceum Comedy Co. closed its engagement here Saturday night and moved its big tent to Lancaster Sunday, where the company will show each night this week. This splendid theatrical organization did a good business here and should do likewise wherever it goes. It is composed of gentlemen and ladies well up in their lines and their show is strictly good and clean.

MISS BEHTA JEAN PENNY was an easy winner in the popularity contest conducted during the fair. The prize was a beautiful gold watch. The other young ladies voted for were: Misses Mattie McClary, Josephine Brady, Tevis Carpenter, Emma Warren, Mary Phillips, Virginia Shumate, Sara Baughman, Virginia Mahony, Kate Pence, Clara Cooper, Virginia Bourne, Sue Taylor Engleman, Mrs. Susan Yeager and little Annette Wray.

SECRETARY JAMES F. CUMMINS was the right man in the right place at the fair. He is one of the best secretaries in the State, as well as one of the cleverest gentlemen. We hope he will be secretary as long as the association can get him to serve. Polite and accommodating he was ever ready to serve the association in any way that would add to the success of the fair and oblige a friend. He was ably assisted by Dr. T. W. Pennington, who was at all times at his post of duty and doing the right thing.

ATTENTION TURNPIKE CONTRACTORS!—Bear in mind that all stone must be put on the turnpikes before the 1st day of January, 1908, and all gravel must be put on, on or before the 15th day of October, 1907. Before beginning work each contractor will notify Samuel Dudderar, the supervisor, Gilberts Creek, Lincoln county, Ky., who will either in person measure your wagon beds and direct where the metal is to be spread or have one of his assistants there to measure the wagon beds and direct where the metal is to be put. R. C. Warren, Judge. June 25, 1907.

"KENTUCKY Democratic by 40,000 and Folk, of Missouri, as a possibility for the Democratic presidential nomination next year," are ideas advanced by Representative Harvey Helm. He is in Washington to attend to some departmental matters, and gave out the following interview: "I am certain that the Democratic ticket in Kentucky will win by a greatly increased majority," said Mr. Helm. "I do not see any chance for defeat, and on the contrary, see every indication of an old-time majority for the excellent ticket the Democrats of the State, have placed before the people. If it be true that recent developments have lost the ticket votes in Louisville, the Democracy has gained for one lost there, three in the State." "This is the day," added Mr. Helm, "for enforcement of the law, and the great majority of the people are for men with courage enough to stand for that slogan. If, Mr. Bryan does not nominate himself, the Democracy can hope for the nomination of a man of the type of Folk, of Missouri, the pioneer of the sentiment that is sweeping Kentucky and occupying the best thought and the best impulse of men in public life everywhere."

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by all druggists.

The mangled body of Charles Embrey, a lumberman of Butler county, was found on the railroad track near Bowling Green, and a Coroner's jury, after an investigation, came to the conclusion that he had been knocked on the head by robbers and left on the track for a train to conceal the evidences of the crime.

Constipation.

For constipation there is nothing quite so nice as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels without any disagreeable effect.
Price, 25 cents. Samples free. All druggists.
